

E - LEARNING

HAVE WE DONE ENOUGH TO SAVE ENERGY BILL?

This program will explore essential elements of Energy Efficiency & Conservation in a typical business entity. Participants will be able to understand sources of energy usage, analyze energy consumption, identify expected savings and the need for energy management system. The program will assist participants to prepare an action plan on how to implement energy efficiency initiatives at the workplace.

Course Objectives

- ❖ To raise efficiency and energy conservation awareness and interest particularly on Malaysia's situation;
- ❖ To develop participants understanding on essential elements of energy efficiency that can be applied and beneficial to participant's business entity; and
- ❖ To introduce the general concept of energy management to the participants in preparation for future undertakings.

Who Should Attend?

- ❖ Building & Facility Manager, Admin Manager & Executive, HR Manager & Executive and individuals who are interested to know more about energy efficiency are encouraged to attend the course.

Course Outline

- ❖ Introduction to EE and Conversation.
- ❖ Improve Building Enclosure to save and conserve energy.
- ❖ Understanding Air Conditioning, Ventilation System, Heating and possible savings.
- ❖ Energy Management, RE and Feed-in Tariff.

Date:
Open

E-Learning

Fee: RM378.00 */pax

- *Inclusive 8% SST
- *Entitle 4 CDP Point from Energy Commission (ST)
- *Full payment must be made before the training date.